

Dying To Know day

Film Screening 11.30am

A legacy of hope and encouragement to all people, to empower them with choices for their own dying, and to know that there can be a warm, natural and accepting mood around the threshold of death, and yes, there can even be an excellent dying